

SMASHED FOUR RECORDS

THE ABBOTT MAKES REMARKABLE TIME IN THE 210 TROT.

Trots the Fastest Race of the Year and Cuts the World's Record—Kentucky Union and Grace Hastings Lower Record.

CLEVELAND, O., July 29.—Record breaking marked the close of the summer circuit meeting, as record-clipping had signalled the opening. This afternoon the world's record was broken twice, first by Kentucky Union and Grace Hastings, who made the mark by the Village Farm station, The Abbott, a second and a half, and by Grace Hastings, who lowered the mark to 2:55, half a second below even the unrecogized clip of Ellmore.

In the first race, the 210 trot, continued over from the day before, The Abbott, with Geers in the sulky, trotted the fastest heat trotted in the year, the fastest trotted on the Cleveland track in two seasons, cut the world's record for 5-year-old geldings from 2:56 to 2:55, and went three heats that formed the fastest race trotted this season, robbing Matt Patterson of her recently gained glory.

The 11,000 people who packed the stand not only witnessed a breaking of turf record, but they saw four of the greatest races ever bunched together on a grand circuit course.

Smashing four records in a race won by straight heats was a wonderful achievement, yet that was what The Abbott did in the 210 trot. Pilot Boy was the only competitor who trotted the time he had what appeared to be a "cinch" on the heat, but The Abbott always managed to push his nose under the wire. Ann Lee and John Nolan won the 215 pace and 2:14 trot with comparative ease.

There were three of the 2:05 pace, and Hump and Anson were played to win, but Anson took the race after losing the third and fourth heats to Frank Bogner. Anson was beaten only a head in the third, and on the fourth he was not as good as he had been.

The trial miles by Kentucky Union and Grace Hastings to beat the wagon record made by The Abbott were fine exhibitions. Summary:
